DEFENSE HALTS STATE'S MOVE

Former Senator Drake Declares Positively He Had Never Solicited a Bribe From Former Senator Dean. Latter Testifies He Never Received Money For Espousing Wet Cause. Bauman's Testimony Challenged.

Columbus, O., Feb. 8. — When the state attempted to offer testimony against former Mayor Charles A. Bond and former State Senator Thomas A. Dean, on trial for alleged attempted bribery, which the defense contended should have been offered in chief instead of rebuttal, the examination of witnesses ended abruptly. The trial will be resumed Monday morning, when Judge Rogers will pass on the question of special charges to the jury and the counsel will argue.

Former Senator John C. Drake declared positively that he had never solicited a bribe or discussed solicitation with Senator Dean in Leachman's chophouse his vote on the Rose bill. This was offered in refutation of Mr. Dean's testimony.

"Directly or indirectly, did you ever solicit aid or money?" Mr. Drake was asked.

"No, sir, never in my life," he replied.

He also denied that Albert Bauman of Fremont, who testified for the defense, was present at the luncheon in the Nell House when the ex-mayor is said to have made overtures of money and re-election to former Senator Atwell. Mr. Atwell also says Mr. Bauman was not there, and it will be the task of the jury to determine who is telling the truth. All of the state's witnesses corroborated each other's stories. The defense witnesses corroborate each other also.

Senator Marshall M. Duval of Steubenville was called to testify that Senator Drake had told him of the alleged attempted bribery before Mr. Dean announced himself as a candidate to succeed Mr. Drake. It was here that objections were made to testimony of this character.

Former Senator Dean, under cross-examination, said he never received money to be used for the wet cause, and came of his own accord to Columbus to see Senator Drake, whom he thought would vote for the Rose bill. He denied his traveling expenses had been paid by the wets.

139 Boys Paroled.
Lancaster, O., Feb. 8. — The state board of administration paroled 139 boys, all of whom will be released from the Boys' Industrial school before April 1.

Girl Killed While Coasting.

Hamil, O., Feb. 8. — Miss Elsie Fall, daughter of Henry W. Fall of Indianapolis, was instantly killed, and four other girls were seriously injured here when a bobbed upon which they were coasting down a hill hit a telegraph pole. Fifteen persons were on the sled at the time. Miss Fall's neck was broken. She was a senior in the Women's college at Oxford university.

WISCONSIN IDEA FAVORED BY COX

His Industrial Commission Will Have Unlimited Power.

MEASURE NOW IN THE MAKING

Encouragement of Capital and the General Welfare of Employees Objects Sought To Be Obtained by the Administration—Senator Green Selected as Sponsor For the Bill. Proceedings of the Assembly.

Columbus, O., Feb. 8.—Health, safety and general welfare of workers on one hand and preservation and encouragement of capital on the other are the twin objects of the new industrial commission which Governor Cox plans to establish. It will have detailed supervision of all the work now done by the state board of arbitration, state liability board of awards, examiner of steam engineers, inspector of workshops and factories, chief inspector of mines and the commissioner of labor statistics. It will exercise an influence on hundreds of millions of Ohio capital and hundreds of thousands of laborers.

The plan, worked out in detail now, is being incorporated into a bill, which probably will be introduced in the senate early next week by Senator William Green of Coshocton. It is being prepared by Special Counsel Frank Davis of the attorney general's office. Many Wisconsin ideas are embodied in it.

Salaries of the three members of the commission probably will be placed at $6,000 a year. Their terms will be for six years.

By placing the several departments under one head, not only will a large amount of money be saved to the state in salaries, but much duplication of work will be eliminated. The bill as drawn gives the commission power of supervision over "every employment and place of employment" and authority to require the "protection of life, health, safety and welfare of every employee."

The power of the commissioners is placed above the civil service, in that they can establish museums and schools for the instruction of safety and hygienic devices, order reasonable standards for the construction of places of employment and appoint a temporary board of arbitration to serve under it.

One of the most sweeping clauses empowers the commission to fix standards and regulations and as a corollary to this proposition will be one to repeal a number of the statutes which now require regulations.

The five free employment bureaus now operated under the commission of labor statistics will be under the proposed new commission. Other employment agencies will be licensed.

Power is given to make industrial surveys of the state and to study the laws in other countries. Moving picture shows may also come within the scope of the commission's regulations. This would include censorship.

Mechanics' Lien Bill In.

The administration is back of the Duffey measure to give material men a lien on buildings, as is made possible under the amended constitution. It is a new mechanics' lien act giving a lien against the owner of a boat, bridge, gas well or building to contractors, subcontractors, laborers and persons furnishing material, machinery, fuel or tile for drainage of land. The owner, though subject to these numerous liens, is protected by provision that the general contractor must deliver to him a sworn statement of amounts due subcontractors, material men, etc., and that he may subtract these amounts from the sum he pays the contractor.

Aid for the blind and tubercular is asked in a sheet of medical bills presented to the house. Representative Deaton of Miami fathered the request for pensions for the blind. His bill would give $1 a day to "every person who by reason of the loss of eyesight has insufficient means." It is so loosely drawn that it would give this pension to anyone who had been in Ohio five years, though he had two good eyes. There is asked $7,500 for

Brother of President-Elect Seeks Position In Senate.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Joseph R. Wilson, brother of President-elect Taft, is a candidate for secretary of the senate. Mr. Wilson set at rest rumors of his possible candidacy in Washington when he declared he was in the race for the office. He stopped in Washington en route from Princeton, where he visited Governor Wilson. Mr. Wilson visited the Capitol and met a number of Democratic senators.

Peruvian Minister Says Indian Rubber Gatherers Will Be Protected.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Cessation of atrocities against Indian rubber gatherers and a thorough reformation of labor conditions in the Putumayo district of Peru are promised in a note from Senator F. A. Pezet, the Peruvian minister at Washington, made public by the state department. The publication of this note followed close on the transmission to congress of a state department report on conditions in the Putumayo, accompanied by a message from President Taft. In his message President Taft characterized the efforts of the Peruvian government to bring about a remedy of the situation as "painfully inadequate and unhappily misdirected." The president indicated, however, that henceforth better things might be expected.

TO CLEAR DECKS FOR WILSON

Four Vessels En Route to Patrol East and West Coasts of Nicaragua, Salvador, Guatemala and Honduras, Where Revolutionary Uprisings Are Threatened as a Result of Political Intrigue.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Determined that President-elect Wilson shall find Central America in order when he takes office on March 4, President Taft has decided that American warships be sent at once to cover all the important points on the east and west coasts.

This drastic action was taken by the president as a result of the alarming reports that have been pouring into the state department from every point in Central America since the November election. The attempted killing of President Araujo of Salvador two days ago strengthened President Taft in his determination that the next administration should not take office with a Central American upheaval on his hands.

Suppression of activities on the part of the colony of habitual revolutionists and "emigrados politicos" at New Orleans is necessary if a general convulsion is to be prevented before the appointed day, which was to be as soon after March 4 as practicable.

On the morning of March 5 it will be up to Mr. Wilson and his secretary of state to decide what they are going to do about Central America. If Mr. Wilson and his secretary of state decide to withdraw the ships at once, such action will be a realization of the fondest hope of the professional revolutionists whose intentions President Taft has just made public.

Tame Lion Sleeps In Cage With Dog and Never Quarrels

EVERYBODY likes a pet of some kind. It is human nature. But not everybody would choose a lion. Mr. Tyrwhitt-Drake, a well known Englishman, did. He has a hobby for animals of all sorts. He raised the lion cub almost from its infancy, and now it not only sits willingly and friendly on a bench with him, as you see, but it sleeps in the same cage with one of its master's dogs, the same one seen in the picture. It is docile and tame at all times and never quarrels. Such a sight as you see in the illustration is unusual, to say the least.

PRETTY WEDDING

Baltimore Girl Becomes the Bride of a French Duke.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 8.—The Duc de Richelieu and Miss Elinor Douglas Wise, daughter of the late Captain Wise, U. S. A., were married here today.

Cardinal Gibbons officiated at the ceremony at the cathedral, and the Rev. Father Horne of New York, who received the bride into the church and baptized her, said the mass. The ushers included Della Franco of Rome, who is said to be a cousin of the king of Italy; Ernesto Begni del Tiati of Italy, M. A. Kosley of Russia and Henry Wise Miller of Morristown, N. J. John Adams Wise, brother of the bride, gave her away.

While only relatives of the family attended the wedding, about 1,000 invitations were issued to the reception, for which elaborate preparations had been made.

Hogan Will Appeal.

Columbus, O., Feb. 8.—Attorney General Hogan announced he would appeal directly to the supreme court, in hopes of securing a reversal of Judge R. G. Richards of Steubenville in quashing indictments against eight Jefferson county candidates for alleged violation of the Kimble corrupt practices act. The indictments charged spending more money for campaign purposes than allowed by law.

ROCKEFELLER ILL; PROBE ABRUPTLY ENDS

Aged Oil Man Collapses When Pujo Tries to Examine Him.

Jekyll Island, Ga., Feb. 8.—A spasm of the throat that left William Rockefeller a straggling, trembling old man, on the verge of nervous collapse, abruptly terminated his examination by Chairman Pujo and Counsel Samuel Undermyer of the house money trust committee here.

Mr. Rockefeller was asked just four questions, all practically immaterial, before the attack forced conclusion of the hearing. The aged Standard Oil magnate was closeted with a committeemen for only 12 minutes. At the end of that time he was assisted to his couch by Dr. Walter F. Chappelle, his physician, who declared his patient exhausted.

In Mr. Rockefeller's rooms of the apartment house Sans Souci, on the isolated island that forms the estate of the exclusive millionaires' club of Jekyll Island, the 72-year-old Standard Oil magnate submitted to the questions. There ended the six months' search of the government process servers, who sought the reluctant witness from New York to the Bahamas and who lay siege to his New York home.

The net result of the examination, so far as the money trust investigation was concerned, added practically nothing of value to the record. It did demonstrate to the satisfaction of Mr. Pujo that Mr. Rockefeller was hardly a fit subject physically for a grueling examination on the details of his financial career.

"Mr. Rockefeller is in a very serious state," said Dr. Chappelle. He said that a new growth of a malignant nature recently had formed in Mr. Rockefeller's throat and serious developments were to be expected at any time.

MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN DRAWING TO A CLOSE

So Far 185 New Members Have Been Added to the Y. M. C. A.,
and Last Night's Report Showed 49 New Ones for Friday--Last Meeting Tonight When Much Better Reports Are Expected.

Up until seven o'clock Friday night the total number of new members to the Y. M. C. A. secured in the campaign for 400, reached a total of 185, only 49 new ones being added Friday, and the number previous to that was 136.

The workers met as usual at the Y. M. C. A. and dined together Friday evening, about 70 being present. After supper Capt. General Edw. Fite called for the reports of the various teams, and 49 new ones were turned in, including several sustaining memberships.

All reported having promises from many who would enter on the last day of the campaign, and expect to make a much better report when the time comes again tonight.

The number reported by the various teams for the three days is as follows:

Basket Ball Bunch	1	5	5
Life Problem Club	3	9	5
N. Side Bus. Men	44	18	10
Professional Men	0	4	10
Industrial Crowd	6	3	8

Clerks	6	5	1
Salesmen	6	0	4
S. Side Bus. Men	6	5	1

Total 77 59 49
Grand total 185

Following the reports, Hon. C. A. Reid made a rousing five minute speech, in which he stated that if all went to work with a will, and placed their whole heart in the work the large number necessary for the 400 would be secured with some to spare. He was roundly applauded.

When asked by Mr. Fite how many would pledge to do their very best Saturday, virtually every man and boy in the room arose, and there was more enthusiasm manifested than at any previous meeting.

Auto Tag Sale Reaches $153,034

The State treasury was enriched $153,034 this week when a certified check for that amount was turned over to Treasurer Brennan by J. A. Shearer, state registrar of automobiles.

The amount represented the receipts of the department for the month of January, less expenses of the department. The total receipts were $169,319, and the expenses $16,327.

The gain over the same month last year was $59,068.

Bradys Win Again

The Xenia Bradys and the Antioch college team Wednesday night was tame and unexciting, the Bradys winning an easy victory over the Antioch team. The score was 29 to 20.

Fraver, Xenia's lengthy center, suffered the loss of a tooth and had one eye closed by his opponent jabbing him in the face with his elbow. The Xenians are the ones who defeated the local team by 54 to 22 score.

New Members Enlarge Circle

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Circle of the G. A. R. held Friday afternoon in Memorial hall, was fraught with more than ordinary interest and pleasure.

There was a good attendance of members, Mrs. Mary Goldsberry Burgett, Mrs. Jos. N. Willson, Mrs. Mae S. Rogers and Miss Lida Williams, were taken in and given a cordial reception.

The spirit of the G. A. R. is invigorating the circle in anticipation of the coming encampment and ten new members have been enrolled at the last three meetings.

Mrs. Mary Millikan, president, had charge of the work, and at its close tea was served and a social hour enjoyed.

Biggest Public Sale Of Duroc Jersey Hogs Ever Held in County

Many Buyers of More Than National Reputation in the Live Stock World Are Attracted Here By the Hugh K. Stewart Sale.

HIGH INDIVIDUAL PRICES
REMARKABLY HIGH AVERAGES

Market Street Sales Barn Was Crowded to Capacity With Experts and Buyers From All Sections of the Country.

The Hugh K. Stewart annual sale of Duroc Jersey sows and gilts from the Spring Hill herd, held Friday at the Hess livery barn, brought to a close the Duroc Breeders' Ohio Sale Circuit week of 1913 and was a sale of notable interest among both home and foreign breeders. It was unquestionably the largest and most successful Duroc sale ever held in the county, the hogs bringing the highest price on local records.

The Stewart sale of 1912 was considered extra good, but the 1913 one attracted more big breeders and well known foreign buyers and out-classed in spirited bidding as well as high prices, any previous Duroc sale. Fifty-one head of pure bred, immuned Durocs were sold and half went to foreign buyers, scattered over a wide territory.

The Hess sale barn was packed between the hours of 1 and 3:30 p. m., chiefly with a crowd of farmers and breeders there to buy and with no eyes for anything but the fancy Durocs as they were turned loose in the pen. It was the liveliest place in the county. Auctioneers Col. H. L. Inglehart, of Elizabethtown, Ky.; Col. M. W. Eckles, of Fayette county; Col. W. H. Irwin, of Harrod, O., announced that this wasn't a "protracted meeting" and the 51 hogs were going to be sold by 3:30. The fast and furious pace at which they were knocked off was the delight and admiration of the crowd. A Kentucky tongue and Irish wit make a racy combination for a hog sale and the way that sale was cried was surely a corker. The bidder who took time to make up his mind saw the hog knocked down to the other fellow.

The crowd enjoyed the auctioneers' jokes and the by-play immensely.

At last year's sale the highest price paid was $75.00 and the hogs averaged $35.

This year the highest price was $110, paid by McKee Brothers, of Versailles, Ky., who also paid $95 for a second high quality hog. The hogs averaged $45.13, $10 a head above last year.

Messrs. Frank L. Parrett, Charles Persinger and J. A. Wissler were particularly active among the local buyers. Mr. Parrett bid in one of the best hogs of the sale at $66 and several others not far below that figure. Mr. Wissler paid $57 for one and Mr. Persinger $56. G. M. Kinikin, of Hamilton bought a fancy Duroc at $71 and Col. W. S. Robinson, of Mt. Sterling, another at $61. The Pittsburg-Buffalo Co. bought several of the fancy headed, stretchy kind to ship to Johnetta, Pa.

The high prices brought in this sale were largely due to confidence in Mr. Stewart as a Duroc hog breeder of remarkable success and experience.

A number of field men at the sale were W. P. Penry, of Radnor, representing the Duroc Bulletin; F. D. Hengst, of Nashville, Tenn., representing the Southern Agriculturist; R. S. Evans, of Chicago, secretary National Duroc Association and editor of the Duroc Bulletin; E. K. Morris, of Indianapolis, representing the Swine Breeders' Journal.

Among the foreign breeders in attendance were Mr. T. C. Cushman, of Chillicothe, who was a heavy buyer; C. H. Rodgers, of Smith and Rodgers, Springfield, the firm that bought the grand champion sow of the International Live Stock Exposition, of Chicago for $600 at the Ma-

Hillsboro Wins From Local Team

The Washington High School Basket Ball team lost a game to Hillsboro on the Hillsboro floor Friday night, the Hillsboro boys winning by a 30 to 15 score.

When Washington started out the Hillsboro team was carried off its feet, and the first half favored Washington. However in the second half the local boys were outwinded and defeated.

The return trip to this city was made with considerable difficulty as the night was cold and a tire on the automobile gave way.

Depot Robbed Of Provisions

Some time Thursday night thieves entered the D. T. & I. station at South Solon, and carried off a quantity of cakes and oranges which had been left in the station over night. Detectives of the road are making an investigation, and expect to bring the burglars to justice.

Still Working On Interurban

Messrs. Chas. Sollars and O. T. Grafton are still securing contracts from property owners along the line of the proposed Washington to Hillsboro traction, although the severe weather has prevented them from seeing many of the property owners, and they will await better weather before pushing the work.

So far some $25,000 in contracts have been secured, and when the good weather opens up and they get busy, this sum will grow rapidly.

Prominent Druggists Are Giving Away 25 Cent Packages Free.
Use Coupon Below---It Is Worth 25c to You.

The local druggists are offering a new treatment for cold troubles—something out of the ordinary. They are selling this treatment on thirty days' trial, and state that any one can use it all, and if it does not prove to be the very best remedy you have ever used, your money will be immediately returned.

This remedy comes from North Carolina, the Tar Heel State, and is in the form of a salve that you apply externally over the throat and chest. The warmth of the body liberates vapors of Camphor, Eucalyptus, Thymol, etc. These vapors are inhaled through the nose and mouth direct to the lungs with every breath, at the same time the preparation is being absorbed through the pores of the skin.

The effect on all cold troubles is remarkable, and as for croup, this new treatment, Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve, relieves the most stubborn cases in fifteen minutes, and all of this without disturbing your digestion by taking internal medicines.

A good many of the more enterprising druggists have arranged with the manufacturers for a supply of 25-cent packages to be given free to their customers.

Among the druggists are:
BLACKMER & TANQUARY,
CHRISTOPHER'S DRUG STORE,
BALDWIN'S DRUG STORE,
BROWN'S DRUG STORE.

Just present the coupon below to your druggist. Remember this supply is limited, so you had better turn in your coupon early.

"Put" Sandles Is First of Series

General interest throughout the county is being taken in the first of a series of educational lectures under the auspices of the local Y. M. C. A., which will be delivered by Hon. A. P. Sandles, the popular secretary of the State Agricultural board, next Tuesday night at Grace church. The subject "Dollars and Sense" will be treated in Mr. Sandles' inimitable way.

Secretary Sandles comes down from Columbus on the Tuesday afternoon train and will be accompanied by B. R. Ryall, state secretary County Y. M. C. A. work. Immediately after their arrival there will be a discussion with the Y. M. C. A. Educational committee, in regard to the possibilities for county work.

The Educational committee is composed of Henry Brownell, chairman; Hon. Humphrey Jones, J. T. Tuttle, R. H. Harrop, Frank M. Kennedy, Supt. McLean and O. K. Probasco. The committee wishes to take up the subject of a county corn growing contest and other new departures with Secretary Sandles.

DO YOU LIKE ROSES?

Would you like to receive, express paid, 6 strong and well-rooted rose plants, all different and each variety distinguished for size, beauty, fragrance and brilliancy of color?

If so, read on. We have completed arrangements whereby these roses can be shipped direct to you by one of the leading horticulturists of America, providing your order is received during the month of February, 1913.

DESCRIPTION

Climbing Meteor Rose	Bessie Brown,
is the ideal red climbing rose. Full, free and hardy, and literally loaded with deep red flowers. The climbing Meteor is just the rose for you to train up the porch and around the windows at home.	a rose whose beauty has taken the country by storm. It is strong growing, free blooming, and one of the finest roses in cultivation. The large flowers, highly built and double, are creamy white in color, with a pale and tender flesh tint. It is highly scented and a magnificent rose in open grounds.
Rhea Reid,	Mme. Abel Chatenay,
a rose of the type of the American Beauty, but of the easiest culture. It opens its large flowers perfectly under all weather conditions, its colors varying with the temperature, from a bright cherry-rose to a rich crimson and scarlet.	a glorious bedding rose with rich bright foliage. It is strong, healthy and a profuse bloomer. Borne on long stems, the flowers are large and full, with recurved petals, shaded rose-vermillion.
Champion of the World,	Helen Gambier,
a vigorous grower, delightfully fragrant and almost invulnerable against the attacks of insects. An ever-blooming rose of rich glossy pink.	this is the famous yellow garden rose. The buds are full and firm, lasting a long time when cut. As the flowers expand depths of golden yellow are revealed, with a combination of tints and tones unequalled in beauty.

These plants were rooted early last spring and will be shipped from 3-inch pots direct to you. Such plants would ordinarily cost more than $1.00. During the remainder of this month we will offer them as follows:

SET OF SIX ROSE PLANTS DAILY HERALD 4 months in Washington and WOMANS HOME COMPANION 1 year All for	$2.95
SET OF SIX ROSE PLANTS DAILY HERALD outside of Washington and OHIO STATE REGISTER, both 5 months, Woman's Home Companion 1 year, all for	$2.95
SET SIX ROSE PLANTS OHIO STATE REGISTER 1 year, WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION 1 year All for	$2.50

Now is the time to order. Collections will be reserved by the florist immediately upon receipt of order. If you prefer the plants will be shipped at once, but without extra cost to you the florist will hold the plants until the proper time for planting. You cannot do better than follow the latter course.

These offers are open to new or old subscribers alike. In the event that one of these offers is accepted by a person who is already paid in advance, his time will be further extended in accordance with the offer selected.

PLATFORMS NOT MEANINGLESS.

The able editor of the Ohio State Journal assumes a very remarkable attitude editorially for one who is usually so well anchored in principle, in referring, under the head of "Following the Platform," to the present state administration.

In the editorial referred to it is unequivocally announced that the people of Ohio did not elect the Democratic platform but elected James M. Cox governor.

Literally speaking all must acknowledge, of course, that the assertion is correct, but in the sense it is undoubtedly used and placing upon the statement that construction which the writer intends should be placed upon it, good citizens cannot agree that the position assumed by the Journal is a sound one. Indeed the writer asserts, practically, in so many words, that political platforms are framed only to catch votes.

Again, all must acknowledge the literal truth of the statement, but the idea conveyed is an erroneous one.

Time was when political parties did do that very thing but that time has gone by. People these days, as never before, scan political platforms which are nothing if not a declaration of principles and a promise of official conduct.

The people of Ohio elected James M. Cox governor because he had declared himself as favoring the code of political and governmental principles embodied in the Democratic platform. He went further than that and declared that he believed the party platform was a solemn contract with the people and should be lived up to in letter and in spirit.

It is a matter of very serious doubt indeed if the present occupant of the governor's office, popular and able though he may be conceded to be, would have received a plurality of the votes cast at the last election if he had declared himself as favoring some other platform.

The people elected James M. Cox because they believed him when he said he stood for the platform of his party, and if elected he would keep the promises made in that platform.

Perhaps there are as the Journal states, few men who can give, off hand, the platforms of the political parties in the last campaigns, but nearly every man can tell, "right off the bat" where each political party stands on the particular matters in which he is interested.

People these days, in electing a man to office, demand answers to two important questions—one, what does he stand for and that can only be ascertained from his platform, and second, is he a man who will keep his promise.

The voters know what a man says he stands for only by the platform which he publicly adopts as his code of principles and if when elected he is untrue, if he does not endeavor to the best of his ability to live up to the promises made in the platform he is regarded as dishonest and unfit.

The day of vote catching platforms is gone. Platforms are no longer built to run for office on only. The man who advocates the abandonment of the party platform after election is preaching a dangerous doctrine.

How else is the public to know what manner of man they are voting for, if not by the platform he stands upon. Voting a mere man into office is a dangerous thing. It is too much like monarchy for this nation in this day and age. The platform pledge is the law which regulates and controls the man in office. It is the guide post which points the way to the voters. This is not a nation ruled by men, but a nation ruled by principles which control public servants in the discharge of their duties.

No Room For Dependents of Other Nations

By Professor CHARLES ZUEBLIN, Sociologist and Lecturer

THE UNITED STATES SHOULD NOT BE BURDENED WITH THE DEPENDENTS OF OTHER NATIONS; THEY SHOULD BE DEPORTED TO THEIR OWN COUNTRIES.

Laws must be made and administered without favor, and the DEPENDENTS OF OUR OWN NATION SHOULD BE CARED FOR BY SUCH LAWS, CUSTOMS AND INSTITUTIONS AS WILL CONDUCE TO INDEPENDENCE.

Nationality demands the fullest possible development of race talent with reciprocity, if not unity. National welfare demands SEX EQUALITY. The individual, the family, the state, can only fulfill their functions on the basis of economic justice involving scientific production, suitable distribution, discriminating consumption. The state is the organization of all consumers in a given geographical area and serves its ends when all mature intelligence has a free chance for expression.

Poetry For Today

FATHER LOVE.

We hear about a mother's love
In story and in song.
How staunch it is through thick and thin,
How tender and how strong,
How sweet and pure and beautiful,
And every word is true,
But how about a father's love
That claims some credit, too.

It's father delves the darksome mine
And climbs the girders high,
And swings upon the scaffolding
Between the earth and sky.
It's father bends his aching back,
And bows his graying head,
To bear the burdens of the day,
And earns the children's bread.

For both must work and both must plan,
And do an equal share
To rear the little ones the Lord
Has trusted to their care,
All honor to the mother love,
The universe it fills,
But when you praise it, don't forget
That father pays the bills.

VIEWS OF OTHERS

A GAIN OR A LOSS?

Secretary Hitchcock makes a most creditable showing of the results of his administration of the Post Office Department. The wiping out of a deficit and the substituting of a surplus are always gratifying exhibits of progress. And it is particularly gratifying to note how the Postal Savings Bank has been growing in popular favor. For the fiscal year last reported it made a gratifying growth, which almost remunerated the government for the cost of maintaining the machinery needed to operate it. The secretary is confident that the past and present rate of growth will not only be maintained but increased to a point where the resulting revenue will make this branch of the department's work self-sustaining.

It is hardly consonant with this bright review and prospects to find, in the secretary's report, a renewal of his former recommendation to double the postage on second class mail. To what other influences so much as to that of newspapers can the secretary attribute the continuing growth of patronage, by the people, of the Postal Savings Banks? Can he believe that, without the widespread publicity which newspapers have given this new enterprise, without their reports of its extension, without their full explanations of its system of work and the nature of its security, and without their editorial urging of such as have long been depositors in chimney corners and holes in the ground, to trust the government and get paid for doing so, the growth in the volume of deposits could have been as great and as steady as it has been? What other or better system of advertising its banks has the department found than the one which has cost it nothing?

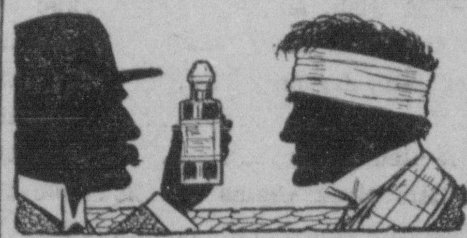

Doubling the postage on newspapers would, beyond a doubt, reduce their number and restrict the circulation of such as could stand the increase. Such a reduction would be a reduction in the advertising space the Post Office Department now fills without paying for a line of space. The effect of such a reduction would be to delay the institution of 1 cent postage on first-class mail and to retard development of the Parcel Post, which Mr. Hitchcock insists should be enlarged on the lines of reducing the postage and increasing the weight of the packages. These are worthy ends, but he would now have no parcel post worth speaking of but for the co-operation of the newspapers he is proposing to mulct. Without such continuing co-operation there is a large probability that the worthy aims the retiring postmaster general has in view can not be served without putting the entire department, in all its branches, back on the plane where it was before the great development of newspapers through the second-class mail privileges, when making expenses was not even dreamed of, and when the annual deficit ran into millions.—St. Louis Globe.

TRUSTED CONVICT HAS CHARGE OF PRISON FARM

"Harry W. Gazelle, former Cleveland banker, serving five years in the penitentiary for embezzlement, has been appointed superintendent of the prison farm near Orient by the state board of administration," says the Columbus Dispatch.

"He took charge of the property last Saturday, February 1, succeeding A. R. Henderson, of Scioto county, who was dropped from the state payroll. Mr. Henderson, whose home is in Portsmouth, has been in charge of the farm for the past two years, drawing a salary of $100 per month.

"Results from the farm have not been entirely satisfactory to the administration board, and three weeks ago they decided to send Gazelle out and permit him to recommend any changes that he might deem necessary.

Has Worked Wonders.

"Allen W. Thurman, of the administration board, is authority for the statement that wonders have been worked in the place since Gazelle has been there, and it was decided to put him in complete charge, the change becoming effective February 1.

"For several months Gazelle has been granted unusual freedom because of his knowledge of bookkeeping and general clerical work. For several weeks he was employed in the office of the board of administration assisting Miss Nye, payroll officer, in making a card index of her work, and answering correspondence. He has always kept the faith imposed, and has proved a model prisoner.

Made Study of Farming.

"From the time he entered the state prison he has shown interest in farm work, and has purchased farm magazines whenever possible, improving his idle moments. At the administration board Gazelle checked up the work of the prison farm, and found many places where profitable suggestion could be made which were accepted by President Thurman, and in turn given to Superintendent Henderson.

"Three weeks ago he was sent to the farm, and so successful has been his work that the board decided to appoint him superintendent, and save the state $100 per month that was being paid Mr. Henderson.

In Complete Control.

"As superintendent of the farm, Gazelle, tho a prisoner of the state, will have charge of the expenditure of thousands of dollars annually, and will be in complete control of all prisoners sent from the penitentiary to work on the farm.

"The 24 prisoners now there have given the new superintendent their word that they will assist him in every way possible in making the farm a success financially and otherwise, and will not take advantage of the liberties that have been granted them.

Parole Was Protested.

"Two months ago Gazelle applied for a parole, but petitions from Cleveland began to pour in upon the board and action on the parole was postponed. The protests were filed by depositors in the bank which failed in Cleveland, and in which Gazelle was an officer, and from which he was found guilty of embezzling funds. It is possible that the application will be acted upon later.

"The term of Gazelle does not expire for about seven months. As soon as he is released from the prison it is probable that he will be asked to remain in charge of the prison farm, and put upon the state payroll at $100 per month, the same as has been paid since the farm was started, to the superintendent in charge."

MEANS YEAR IN RENO

Nevada House Viciously Amends the Existing Divorce Law.

Reno, Nev., Feb. 8.—By a vote of 30 to 22, the house of the Nevada legislature killed the existing six months' residence divorce law by adoption of the amendment which has literally shaken the entire state to its very foundations. The new law, if similarly passed by the senate early next week, changes the period of residence necessary to secure a divorce to one year in the state and six months in the county where the action is filed. It is effective Jan. 1, 1914. Such citizenship only applies to divorce seekers.

The warship Ijalich bombarded the enemy from Buyuk, in Chokmeje bay. The bombardment of Adrianople continues night and day, but the damage has been unimportant."

SOME PULLET THIS: 287 EGGS IN ONE YEAR.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Feb. 8.—Judge Robert F. White owns a buff pullet which, according to the number of eggs she has laid, is some hen. A few days ago D. C. Paulding, a hen fancier, made the statement that he owned a hen that had laid 235 eggs in the year ending Jan. 31. Judge White comes back, and says his pullet has laid 287 from Feb. 7, 1912. Judge White further says the hen was given to him by a friend and it is the only one he has, and it has performed this stunt all by itself and without the aid of a rooster.

Another Victory For The Governor

PUBLIC WORKS BILL PASSED

Embodies Cox's Ideas Regarding Reorganization of Department.

Columbus, O., Feb. 8.—Governor Cox's ideas about the reorganization of the department of public works had sufficient bearing on the senate to induce that body to accept them in toto, and the bill, which Thursday was sent back to committee for reconsideration, was passed unanimously. The governor had demanded that the office of assistant superintendent, at a salary of $2,500, be eliminated, and that the salary of the secretary be cut from $2,500 to $2,000.

THE FIRST ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE LINCOLN

Next Wednesday is the anniversary of President Abraham Lincoln's birth, and the following story of the first attempt to assassinate Lincoln, which appears in the February American Magazine will be of more than passing interest.

The story came to light in a letter written by Allen Pinkerton, in 1866, in which Pinkerton tells to the world for the first time the story of his connection with the plot to assassinate Lincoln at Baltimore on his way to Washington in February, 1861. Pinkerton discovered the plot and saved Lincoln's life. He accompanied Lincoln from Philadelphia to Washington, and of his experiences with Lincoln in the train he writes in part:

Mr. Lincoln wore an overcoat thrown loosely about his shoulders, without inserting his arms in the sleeves, and a black Kossuth hat, which he told me some ardent supporter had presented to him during the campaign. He took a seat with Mr. Lamon and myself, Mr. Kenney, the superintendent of the P. W. & B. Railroad, sharing the seat with the driver overhead. As it was too early for us to approach the P. W. & B. depot, Mr. Kenney had the driver take us around the city until it was just about time to reach the depot five minutes after the train was due to leave. We left the carriage at a dark spot a short distance from the depot; and, Mr. Lamon keeping a little in the rear of Mr. Lincoln and myself, the latter leaning on my arm and stooping somewhat so as to diminish his height as much as possible, we passed rapidly through the depot, entered the sleeping car, and within two minutes—Mr. Kenney, meanwhile, having delivered the package of valuable papers to the conductor, John Lizenburg—the train was in motion, and we were speeding along toward Baltimore. None of the party slept any. At Harve de Grace, on my return inside the car, after having been out to see if my signals were all right, Mr. Lincoln remarked: "They say we are at Harve de Grace, and are moving along well. I understand we are on time."

"Although Mr. Lincoln did not sleep, he was by no means restless. I could not then nor have I since been able to understand how anyone, under the circumstances, could have manifested such complete mental composure and cheerful spirits as he exhibited during the entire journey. On arriving at the Baltimore and Ohio depot in Baltimore, we had a wait of about half an hour. Here I again left the car, but remained outside only long enough to satisfy myself that everything was all right. It was only about four o'clock when I returned everybody in the car seemed to be asleep but our party. Presently the train rolled out of the depot, and we were at last bound for Washington. All the night through Mr. Lincoln being unable to sleep, had been telling us jokes and stories, of which he seemed to have an endless store, in a voice so low no one heard him but Lamon and me.

As the train neared the Capital City (it was then daylight, and we were making preparations for our orderly appearance on our arrival at the Washington depot), Mr. Lincoln yawned, and, turning toward Lamon and me, said with a smile, "Well, boys, thank God this prayer-meeting's over."

"At the depot, awaiting us as the train rolled in, were Mr. Washburn, of Illinois and Senator Seward. We then proceeded at once to Willard's Hotel, where Mr. Lincoln registered his own name and that of Mr. Lamon and myself, and was assigned rooms, though not those he expected he would have, as he had arrived somewhat in advance of the appointed time. During the morning after the news of his arrival had spread, there was more or less excited talk. Few men were willing to believe he had actually reached the city, and many were the vile and bitter imprecations I heard heaped upon his head while mingling with the crowds in the hotels and public places of that rebellious city. Its people, as a rule, appeared scarcely more favorable to the Union than in Baltimore. Mrs. Lincoln, accompanied by Mr. Judd and the rest of the party, followed in due time. Before they left Harrisburg, the news had been telegraphed all over the country of the safe arrival of the President-elect in Washington. In passing through Baltimore, they met with anything but a cordial reception. At Mr. Lincoln's suggestion, I returned to Baltimore that afternoon for the purpose of learning whether those who sought his life in that city might not amend their plot so as to attempt to destroy him on the day of his inauguration; and I accordingly remained there till after the latter event had taken place."

Boys Enjoy Winter Sport

During the past few days the youngsters have been having the time of their life coasting and taking long sled rides behind vehicles, attaching their coasters by means of ropes and enjoying the sport thoroughly.

In many instances a half dozen sleds with as many eager, sparkling eyed lads may be seen behind one rig, and for the most part the one who drives the rig rather enjoys the fun with the youngsters, although in a few instances the driver uses his whip when the boys pile upon his vehicle too thick for comfort.

While scores of boys have been enjoying the sport, there is more or less danger in being in the street, and more than one narrow escape from being run down and seriously injured, is reported. However no bad accidents have been reported so far.

The older boys and girls have also been finding enjoyment in sleighing and numerous sled parties have been organized.

A Tribute To Billy Sunday

By Doc Waddell.

BE TRUE!

Say, Fellow, and Girlie, too,
Be True!
Lay aside false and ugly word,
Boost, don't knock;
Be True!
Go to God for Friend and Foe,
Love thy neighbor as thyself.
Do this above all else,
Be True!

Billy Sunday is a battler. He was born during the Civil War. His father was killed in that awful conflict. Can't you see, he's a born fighter? God marked him for the strife; by nature and all that's good and pure in birth he's gifted with the power to combat.

Ever since his conversion, twenty-six years ago, opponents have searched to find a blot on his character. They did not so search before his change of heart. I believe if the blot existed unfound his lot would be absolute failure and disgrace. I knew a newspaper man who was after a single flaw, and this writer told me that every time he went where Sunday lived he found him with the Bible in his hands, reading and studying it, and one time he caught the evangelist asleep with the Bible on his breast and his hands clasped over it. Be "Honor Bright!" If those who assail Billy Sunday would do this, would they continue opponents?

When he was converted he was marvelous as a ball player and received a large salary. The future was golden for him as to fame and money. Will his opponents deny that, if he had continued in baseball, there was every chance for him to own, or control, if not in whole, in part, big league franchise like Gerry Herrmann, of the Reds, and Charley Murphy, of the Cubs? Do not baseball magnates realize more profit money on baseball than Sunday does by his revivals?

Sunday quit the national game and big money for position with the Chicago Y. M. C. A. at $89 per month, and, mark you with a family on his hands—a wife to provide for and children to educate. He worked one year at $89 per month. The second year the salary was $100 per month, and the third year $125 each month. He struggled on this income for ten years. How many of the opposition would have done the same? Say, he did not know when he was converted of the great power that was to come to him, and he little dreamed of the mighty work he'd be doing. He was not an orator when converted. He did not figure on Tabernacles and the like, then. He was "called" to do what he is doing, and he is doing it right and proper, or you would not hear the roar of opposition.

When writing stories for big circuses these occasionally got in behind the Sunday revivals, and to a loss. For instance, the John Robinson circus exhibited at Rantoul, in Illinois, three weeks after Sunday's tabernacle and showed to exactly 526 people on the day. These shows carry more or less of the unlighted. Later I followed him with the Lambrigger Animal Show, a complete, perfect, legitimate, honest affair, and business was phenomenal. In all these towns and places I looked the man Sunday up; studied his methods and cross-examined his aides, admirers and converts. My investigations reveal him HONEST AND SINCERE. I know so many sinners who hit the "Sawdust Trail" and became real, upright MEN and WOMEN. True, there are backsliders after his departure, but there couldn't be if Sunday could remain with the converts. After he goes, they are turned over to the churches. Some poor fellow, not so well-dressed, converted at the Tabernacle, ascends the high steps of the fashionable church of his mother when his folks were well-to do, and on entering, a "two-by-four" usher, hair parted in the middle, gives the poor fellow the look that has sent many backward into Hell. Revivalists do not influence loss of soul; there are church members who do. Take it from me, the Sunday converts will stick just in proportion to the warmth of welcome and quality of salvation on the part of ministers and their flocks.

Newspapers exaggerate the amount of money given Sunday in respective towns. It averages about $10,000. He is now in Columbus in a campaign of seven weeks. This will give him in the neighborhood of $15,000 per week. Sunday carries perhaps a dozen helpers or assistants and he pays them splendid salary. Deduct the salaries and other expenditures, including the Baseball evangelist's charity giving, and what remains?

The question is not what he gets, but what he does with it. Be fair, and you'll be a Billy Sunday Booster—his friend and not his foe.

For sale at a special bargain price, one splendid upright, mahogany case, piano—regular price $400.

Forced Teacher To Quit School

"The Deercreek township school board held a series of sessions Friday and Saturday. It was wash day with them and they cleaned up a batch of soiled linen that they have had on hands, it seems, for some time", says the Williamsport News. "Nobody can possibly derive any benefit from the publication of the details, and to some it might prove harmful. For this reason The Herald has but little to say other than to express approval of the board's action. "Charges were preferred against Newel McNeal, teacher at Kinderhook. They are on file with the clerk and taxpayers have a right to see them if they care to. They are typewritten and signed by B. E. Helwag. McNeal's written reply is also on file with the clerk. The board took oral testimony from Gladys Helwag, Newel McNeal, Jay Kegg, Dwight Rector, Ida F. Wilson and Viola Heeter. "Upon a unanimous vote of the board Newel McNeal's resignation was requested. He made it in writing. It was accepted and later Fred Gray was employed to teach the Kinderhook school the remainder of the school year."

YEGGMEN ARRESTED AT COLUMBUS TODAY

Quartet of Safe Crackers Nabbed After Completing Job at Granville, Believed to Be Same Who Tried to Rob P. & D. Bank in This City, and Who Have Cracked Safes in Many Ohio Towns.

Special to Herald.
Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 8.—The Columbus police this morning arrested four men on an Ohio electric car just outside of the city, and each of the men was loaded down with revolvers. They also carried handbags containing nitroglycerine, fuses, drills and a quantity of stolen jewelry. The men are evidently the gang of professionals who have been working this part of Ohio recently, and their arrest followed the blowing of a safe in the Fred Buxton's jewelry store at Granville, and the theft of jewelry.

Pays Fancy Price For Champion Sow

Among the foreign buyers here to attend the Stewart Duroc sale Friday was C. H. Rodgers, of the Smith-Rodgers Co., of Springfield, the purchasers of "King Lady II," the grand champion sow at the Chicago International Live Stock Exposition of 1912. The Duroc Bulletin claimed, "The best sow of her age we have ever seen." Mr. Rodgers bought her at the Mahon Brothers' sale at Osborn last week and paid the fancy price of $600.
The Smith-Rodgers were among the buyers at the Stewart sale.

FORMER GAMBLER
ENLIGHTENS PROBERS

Tel's Where and When He Paid
$50,000 For Protection.

New York, Feb. 8.—James Purcell, for nearly 17 years engaged in the poolroom and gambling business in New York city, told the Curran committee how, when and where and to whom he paid $50,000 protection money during the last 10 years.

Summed up, Purcell in his testimony declared that he had paid protection money from $50 to $120 a week to ward men of Police Inspectors William McLaughlin and Cornelius Hayes; said he paid the ward men of Captains Thomas, now retired; Delaney, retired; Martens, still on the force; Maude, still on the force; Captains Gannon, retired; Naughton, Cochrane, Burns and Patrick F. Gray, who is Charles F. Murphy's brother-in-law.

He mentioned 22 policemen, alleging that he had done business with all squads with the exception of that commanded by "Honest" Dan Costigan. He said he dealt with Lieutenant Becker and his man White, and had paid William Eggers, who once headed a squad under McAdoo. He had paid, he alleged, Policeman Cliff, who was Commissioner Bugher's man. He further alleged he paid Sheriff Harvey of Queens, who was Democratic boss, succeeding Cassidy, $100 a week for running, with the understanding that $50 was to go to the district attorney. He had only Harvey's word for this. He said he paid Agent McClintock, since out of the Parkhurst society, a fee, and also Agent Britton of the society for the enforcement of the criminal law, for the same purpose.

Purcell's story will go before the grand jury. Purcell himself is now employed by the Parkhurst society.

SPRECKELS SEES PLOT TO EMBARRASS WILSON

Says Customs Receipt Order Is Administration "Plant."

Washington, Feb. 8.—Officials in Washington were startled by the intimation contained in a statement issued by Rudolph Spreckels, the San Francisco banker, that the Taft administration in its closing days is arranging a "plant" to rise up and embarrass the Wilson regime after March 4. An order issued by the treasury department on Jan. 9, providing for the deposit of customs receipts direct in national banks to the credit of the United States, was the subject of Mr. Spreckels' attack.

He contended that it was illegal and calculated to inflate the deposits of these institutions to the extent of $200,000,000; that this inflation will go mainly to New York banks; that after Mr. Wilson enters office he will be compelled to rescind this order and withdraw the money, and that the withdrawal will cause a serious money stringency. In brief, the plain inference of the Spreckels statement is that the Taft administration is plotting to embarrass Mr. Wilson.

Representative Glass of Virginia, chairman of the committee on banking and currency, has undertaken an investigation of the order.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh
That Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reliable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by E. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by E. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle. Take Hall's Wandy Pills for constipation.

KENTUCKY SOLON'S VIEW

Men Have a Right to Drink When and Where They List.

Washington, Feb. 8.—A man has a right to take a drink when he wants to and where he wants to—no matter how dry the district may be. That was one of the reasons given to the senate by Senator Paynter of Kentucky for his opposition to the bill prohibiting shipment of liquor into dry territory. He insisted it was not right to restrict the individual and claimed that the bill did just that. Senator Kenyon of Iowa objected to the statement, but Paynter insisted his interpretation was right.

dent Taft is endeavoring to frustrate. The orders under which the American war vessels are proceeding to Central American waters are expected to prove effective for control of the entire situation. The gunboat Annapolis left Santiago for Amapala, Honduras. The Annapolis can cover operations on the coasts of three republics at once. The cruiser Denver will proceed from Acapulco, Mexico, to Acapulco, on the west coast of Salvador. The cruiser Des Moines will proceed to Bluefields, on the east coast of Nicaragua, while the cruiser Nashville, now at New Orleans, will go to Puerto Cortez, Honduras, or Puerto Barrios, Guatemala. Each of these ports is the most important in the respective countries and each is a railway terminus.

The information in the hands of the state department indicates clearly that three and perhaps four of the republics are involved in the revolutionary plotting now going on. These republics are Nicaragua, Salvador, Guatemala and Honduras. The revolutionary element in these countries is making no secret of its intended action after March 4.

The president hopes by his prompt action in sending naval vessels to Central American waters to nip the schemes of this New Orleans group and their collaborators in Central America, leaving it to Mr. Wilson to determine what he pleases to do about it.

Uncle Sam Alleges Libel

Washington, Feb. 8.—Minister Beaupre at Havana was instructed to request of the Cuban government the prosecution of the persons responsible for the publication in a Havana newspaper of libelous statements regarding the minister and Secretary of Legation Gibson. This action was taken following the receipt from the minister of scurrilous charges published in Havana by the Cuban newspaper. The government expects the Cuban government to be prompt in responding to the request.
